Dear Educator,

The end is in sight, but the schedule is tight. Connecting with the Lord through prayer can be challenging. Every teacher understands the struggle.

Prayer doesn't have to be fancy. Just talk to God. He's listening. A few minutes in prayer each morning and evening can anchor us in God's truth and remind us of who we are in Christ.

Never forget. We need God, and we need prayer! Let's go to the ONLY One who can truly help!

May these prayers give you the strength to push through these final days victoriously!

Day 1

A prayer to be read before you start your day.

Heavenly Father, thank You for another week to serve You. You know I am tired and my emotions are all over the place. Help me, Lord, to remember that by Your divine power You have given me everything I need to make it through today.

Help me to see every circumstance, positive or negative, as an opportunity to demonstrate Your love to others. Equip me through the power of Your Holy Spirit to teach with passion, discipline with grace, and encourage with sincerity. Today is Yours, Lord. I'm depending on You. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A prayer to be read as you end your day.

Lord, as I finish this day, thank You for Your never-ending presence. It is only by Your grace I made it through! As I reflect on the day, I know I wasn't perfect. Forgive me, Lord, if I tried to operate in my own strength. I know apart from You that I can do nothing. Lord, I surrender my worries, exhaustion, and shortcomings into Your hands. Thank You for loving me just as I am and using me to make a difference in the lives of others. I will rest tonight knowing Your power is made perfect in my weakness. In Jesus name, Amen.

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the Lord's work because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain. 1 Corinthians 15:58 CSB

Day 2

A prayer to be read before you start your day.

Father God, thank You for another day! Today, Lord, I want to specifically pray for my students. Help them to stay focused, motivated, and free from anxiety as summer approaches. I know some of them face uncertainty when they leave school. Protect them, Lord, and keep them safe from danger. Help me to see their needs, and show me opportunities where I can help. Give me wisdom to handle whatever comes up today and perseverance to do my best. Empty me of myself and fill me with Your spirit. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A prayer to be read as you end your day.

God, You are so good. I am so very grateful for the opportunity to influence the students You have placed in my care. Help me to be mindful of my words and actions. I desire to point them to You. As each student goes to bed tonight, may they know they are loved. For those that do not know You, Lord, draw them to Yourself. Open doors for me or others to come alongside them and show them the love of Jesus. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 3

A prayer to be read before you start your day.

Jesus, today I want to shift my focus to those around me. There are so many colleagues and leaders in my workplace who are weary and depleted. Help me to be an encourager, speaking hope and life into their lives. Open my eyes to Your activity, and direct me to anyone who needs prayer or a simple expression of kindness. I want to see others as You see them and extend the same grace and mercy You have freely given me. Thank You for the opportunity to share Your love with others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A prayer to be read as you end your day..

Heavenly Father, as I come to the close of another day, I am thankful for Your provision. I trust everything to You knowing my life is in Your hands. Please be with the colleagues and leaders in my workplace. Give each one of them the energy to finish strong and the discernment to make wise decisions. Protect them from negativity and draw them to You, Lord. Help me to be spiritually available and aware amidst the end-of-year chaos. I want those around me to see Jesus in me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. Matthew 5:16

Day 4

A prayer to be read before you start your day.

Father God, as I begin this day, I am mindful of the upcoming transition for the parents of my students. Summertime is fun for some and stressful for others. Lord, I pray You will give parents the desire to engage with their children, the wisdom to guide their children, and the heart to love their children. Give them endurance and a support system to create stable and safe homes. Place people in their lives (including me) who will share the love of Jesus with them. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A prayer to be read as you end your day..

Lord, tonight I come to You on behalf of the parents and caregivers of those students I serve. I know some have great challenges, but I know You love them. I also know family is important to You. For believers, help them to model a vibrant life of faith. For those who don't know You, open doors of opportunity to experience the love of Jesus firsthand. Draw their hearts to You, Lord. If there is anything You want me to do, please show me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Day 5

A prayer to be read before you start your day.

Heavenly Father, I think I have made it! Thank You for the strength You have given me to persevere through these final days. Although my work is coming to an end for now, the work of my school district leadership is continuing. Be with our leaders and elected officials. Give them a spirit of unity and wisdom to make wise decisions in the best interest of students. May Your spirit be at work in their lives. Remind me, Lord, to pray for them throughout the summer. I know the work is not easy. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A prayer to be read as you end your day.

Jesus, tonight I am exhausted, and yet I have a sense of excitement in my heart. I know if I am still here, You have a purpose and plan for me. Help me, Lord, to seek You this summer, to grow in my faith, and to carve out additional time to be with You. Give me rest, refresh my soul, and give me peace. I want my life to bear fruit for the kingdom whether I am in the classroom or on vacation. Thank You for giving me Your life so I can be everything You have called me to be. In Jesus' name, Amen.

"Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing. John 15:5 NLT
